

2019

Science Award for Supply Chain Management

BVL<sup>7</sup>

Invitation for Entries

Do you want to affect Supply Chain Management?

Have you done application-oriented research studies?

Scientists must be courageous! They need the boldness to question the tried and tested and to explore new, unknown avenues. This is how they advance logistics and supply chain management - often with dissertation projects.

With this award BVL honours outstanding theses of young scientists with high practical relevance and hence reproducible benefits for the daily operations of companies.

The award also recognises the contribution of the supervising institutes. It were these institutes which created the decisive stimuli as well as the conditions required for targeted research.

A pre-selection of projects will be presented within the framework of the International Supply Chain Conference. After these presentations, the jury will make its final decision on the winner of the 2019 Science Award for Supply Chain Management.

The Science Award for Supply Chain Management carries a cash prize of € 5,000 for the winner as well as € 5,000 for the supervising institute.

The finalists Science Award for Supply Chain Management 2018

The jury in the final round in Berlin

Experienced experts judge your entries.

Prof. Dr. Dr. h.c. Wolfgang Kersten
Director, Institute of Business Logistics and General Management, Hamburg University of Technology, Scientific Advisory Board, BVL

Dr.-Ing. Julia Boppert
Managing Director, TrilogiQa, Munich, Finalist 2008

Dr.-Ing. Markus Greiling
Productivity Management, Engineering Processes, Wacker Chemie AG, Burghausen, Award winner 1998

Awardee Science Award for Supply Chain Management 2018 Dr.-Ing. Eva Klenk

Terms of Participation

- The following are entitled to submit entries: the person conducting the project or writing the thesis, persons who are responsible for supervising doctoral theses (habilitation) and the responsible board member or institution.
- Entries can only be accepted if the promotion procedure was integrally closed, this means oral exam before June 30, 2019. At the time of the application deadline the submitted work shall not be more than three years old. A book publication is not obligatory.
- Submitted work should be of high practical relevance and have reproducible benefits for the actual practice. Ideally, the projects should already have been put into practice or should be in the implementation phase. A description of the implementation or implementation approaches is needed.
- There is no constriction on defined business sectors or industries. But examples for the implementation in certain business sectors or industries are highly desirable features.

Compliance with formalities is being checked by the BVL head office.

In your application please point out the following aspects:

- scientific approach
- relation to Supply Chain Management/ Logistics
- grade of innovation
- relevance to actual practice

The awardee presents her excellent work.

Dr. Michael Krings
Managing Director,
dmklogistik- Beratungs- und
Beteiligungs GmbH, München,
Research Council, BVL

Prof. Dr.-Ing. Ludger Overmeyer
Head of Institute, Institute for Transport
and Automation Technology,
Hannover Leibniz University,
Scientific Advisory Board, BVL

Prof. Dr.-Ing. Stefan E. A. Recknagel
Director Spare Parts Logistics,
BSH Hausgeräte GmbH, Fuertth
Chapter Chairperson, BVL

Prof. Dr. Carl M. Wallenburg
Chairholder, Logistics and Services Management, WHU – Otto Beisheim School of Management, Dusseldorf,
Scientific Advisory Board, BVL,
Award winner 2004

Previous award winners

2018 Dr.-Ing. Eva Klenk | 2017 Dr.-Ing. Sebastian Rank | 2016 Dr.-Ing. Max Gath und Dr.-Ing. Zázilia Seibold | 2015 Dr.-Ing. Tobias Krühn
2014 Dr. Matthias Winkenbach | 2013 Dr. Mayolo Alberto López Castellanos | 2012 Dr. Jennifer Schwarz und Dr.-Ing. Martin Keßler
2011 Dr. Jochen Gönsch | 2010 Dr.-Ing. Arne Schuldt | 2009 Dr.-Ing. Sebastian Meißner | 2008 Dr. Moritz Gomm | 2007 Dr.-Ing. Marc Schleyer
2006 Dr. Gernot Liedtke | 2005 Dr. Ralf Elbert | 2004 Dr. Carl Marcus Wallenburg | 2003 Dr. Thorsten Klaas | 2002 Dr. Hermann Lödding
2001 Dr. Stephan Dürrschmidt | 2000 Dr. Mechthild Erdmann | 1999 Dr. Martin Kaupp | 1998 Dr.-Ing. Markus Greiling | 1997 Dr. Uta Schneider
1996 Dr. Holger Beckmann | 1995 Dr.-Ing. Jürgen Gläßner | 1994 Dr.-Ing. Stefan Wolff | 1993 Dr. Wilhelm-Achim Hosenfeld
1992 Dr. Stephan Freichel

---

How to submit your work

Phase 1 (Electronically only, as PDF or in MS Word by e-mail to nehls@bvl.de)

- Informal letter to the jury, explaining how the work meets the terms of participation
- Short description of the work to be submitted (max. three pages)
- List of contents
- Tabular CV of the candidate
- Supporting letter of the Ph.D supervisor
- List of publications
- Statement of the applicant that he has not applied for any comparable procedure.

Entries can be submitted in German or English.

Phase 2 (complete printed work (8 copies), as well as one digital version)

Following a pre-selection process by the jury the bestplaced applicants will be asked to submit their entire work:

Bundesvereinigung Logistik (BVL) e.V.
Science Award for Supply Chain Management 2019
Schlachte 31
28195 Bremen
Germany

Assistance regarding application procedure

If you require further information on the application procedure, please contact:

The deadline for entries in phase 1 is June 30, 2019.

The decision of the jury is final.

Susanne Grosskopf-Nehls
Senior Project Manager
T +49 / 421 / 173 84 19
F +49 / 421 / 16 78 00
nehls@bvl.de

Bundesvereinigung Logistik e.V.

Schlachte 31

28195 Bremen

Germany

T +49 / 421 / 173 84 0

bvl@bvl.de

www.bvl.de