

Delegation Group Guidelines for the International Supply Chain Conference

BVL invites you to make the most of its special delegation group conditions for the International Supply Chain Conference (ISCC). As the ISCC becomes a more globally focussed event each year, BVL is always glad to host foreign delegations groups at its annual 3-day conference in Berlin.

Be inspired by the unconventional thinkers in business and society at one of the world's biggest business conferences, and play your part in expanding the international logistics and SCM community!

The following conditions are in place for foreign delegation groups visiting the ISCC in Berlin from European countries (excluding DACH countries):

- Delegation group rates are available for a minimum of 10 people.
- Delegation group participants qualify for a reduced participation fee of 850 € per person.
- Delegation participants must have their registered address in the delegation's country.
- All delegation group participants are required to reserve an exclusive BVL partner hotel with preferential rates for the duration of the conference.
- Preferential rates with Lufthansa and Deutsche Bahn can also be reserved (subject to availability and confirmation).
- The organiser (1 of the 10 people) will be able to attend the ISCC free of charge.
- BVL will also cover the accommodation at an exclusive partner hotel for the organiser.
- Should the group be less than 10 people, refer to below contact details to determine a rate.

Registration and payment

- Delegation organisers are to fill out this excel table and return it via mail to domberg@bvl.de before attempting to register the delegation group online.
- Only once been the delegation has been approved by the BVL Office, each participant can register online via <https://www.bvl.de/en/issc/participant-registration>.
- The delegation country should be stated under the remarks field together with the word "ISCC" for each participant as followed: Country Name ISCC.
- Registration and payment must be completed by 31st August.
- Cancellations as per the Terms of participation (<https://www.bvl.de/en/issc/terms-of-participation>).

The BVL team together with a senior member of the BVL Management or BVL Board looks forward to greeting your delegation group to Berlin!
